

CAPT. ALFRED PLUMMER BONE [13] (Gen. 4)

Civil War Soldier

Son of William Elam Bone [27] and Sarah A. (Williams) Bone [28]
Born Shelby Co., Ind., Sept. 23, 1836, died Greensburg, Ind., July 7, 1906, buried Southgate Cemetery, there; early life was spent on a farm at Cave Mills, Ind., and he assisted his father in the construction of the sturdy mills and milldam that give that Shelby Co. landmark its name; married 1856, LOUISA MARIA DEACON [14] (Shelby Co., Nov. 14, 1839-Oct. 22, 1909)
daughter of JOHN CRAWFORD DEACON [29] and CATHERINE (LA RUE) DEACON [30]. Aft. marriage moved to Shelbyville, Ind., where he was a dealer in hardware and general merchandise for many years. At the outbreak of Civil War he volunteered for service in Federal Army and served three years and eight months, being twice taken prisoner, confined in noisome Andersonville stockade and in Libby Prison in Richmond, Va., when war ended. He returned to Shelbyville, where he was Postmaster for twelve years; was early to discern the important part the telephone was to play in the national economy, and in 1886 became one of 300 original licensees of the Bell Telephone Co., starting an exchange at Greensburg, Ind.; eventually connected his lines with the Central Union, now an integral part of the
A. T. and T. Co. Under his guidance his son Alfred Rufus Bone [6d] entered his career as telephone executive; six children b. Shelby Co., viz:

RANDALL AND ALLIED FAMILIES

Announcement of a First and Limited Edition

A comprehensive genealogical history of the DESCENDANTS OF WILLIAM RANDALL (1609-1693) OF SCITUATE, MASS., with ANCESTRAL FAMILIES, in 600 closely packed pages, completely indexed and with 82 cuts.

Dr. J. G. Randall, Professor of History, University of Illinois, says in the Foreword of this work: "The history of a country can be told in the story of its families. This is especially true, where, as in the case of the Randall line here traced, the American beginnings of a family are interwoven with the beginnings of the American adventure itself. ----- To one whose name is contained here, the book will seem a part of himself. The satisfaction of such a reader, however, will be more than gratification of that natural desire which all of us have for knowledge concerning our ancestors; he will see in these pages those links by which a family or individual is bound up with the story of a nation's founding, development, and mature growth."

SCOPE. The book deals with about 20,000 persons and is the result of many years of research by the author, hitherto unpublished. Interwoven in the text are the contents of the only two other known publications on this line, each of some 30 pages: Joseph Randall of Providence, R.I., and His Descendants, 1868, and William Randall and His Descendants, 1889, both long out of print.

ARRANGEMENT. An automatic numbering and lettering system is used, based on the fan chart, by which it is a simple matter to trace the ancestry of any person. This system of designation determines an orderly arrangement of material, so frequently missing in genealogies. For further clarity, a detailed lineage is provided at the beginning of the chapter on each ancestral family.

ANCESTRAL FAMILIES. While this is an ancestral history primarily, many lines are carried several generations into the collateral branches. In all cases the policy was pursued of including such pertinent information that was discovered as might be of assistance to other searchers. The following families are included: ALEXANDER, ANDREWS, BARSTOW, BENEDICT, BESSE, BONE, BOYCE, BRIDGUM, BUMPASS, BURR, CANFIELD, CHAPIN, CURTIS, DAVIDSON, DERBY, DOWNING, FULWOOD, GILBERT, GOODMAN, GOODRICH, GUNNE, HARRIMAN, HUNTER, IVES, LOMBARD, MARCHANT, MARSH, MARVIN, MERRIMAN, MESSENGER, MILES, MORRIS, MYTTON, PARKER, PENNY, PRUDDEN, RAWLINS, RICH, SKELTON, STODDARD, TAYLOR, TOMES, TOMPKINS, WARE, WARHAM, WELLES, WISE and others. The following European lines also are included: ANJOU, AQUITAINE, DE BEAUMONT, DE BOHUN, DE BOTETOURT, CARLOVINGIAN, EU, DE GAEL, HAINAULT, DE LUSIGNAN, DE MANDEVILLE, DE MORTIMER, DE PESHALL, SAXON KINGS, SAXONY, SCOTTISH KINGS, DE TONY, TOULOUSE, VERMANDOIS and DE WARRENNE.

HISTORICAL: Contemporary local history is featured throughout, from the early settlements of Plymouth to the migrations of the families westward.

PRICE. Printed on Strathmore 100% rag paper and attractively bound in navy blue, copies of this limited edition are now available and will be forwarded, at once, postpaid, upon receipt of $15.00 (check or money order).
